THURSDAY, AUGUST 8, 1901.

A DAILY THOUGHT.
Love must pardon and trust necessarily if it is to remain love to the end.—Imogen Clark.

The home seekers here sit about dejected on El Reno, and now all the small fry gamblers have been run out of town.

It is possible that as a diversion they may have another revolution in Brazil pretty soon. It has been quite dull down here of late, and the inhabitants need something to waste them on.

A dispute affecting the boundary line of Tennessee and Virginia, which has been in statu quo for 100 years, is about to be settled by a survey. It is to be a sort of Rip Van Winkle affair.

A local contemporary tries to remark that "an afternoon paper is trying to create dissension in the Democratic ranks for partisan purposes." Bless you, it does not need to be created. It already exists, and seems likely to continue to exist.

The Illinois Central was recently asked by the city to construct a fill on Tennessee street, and in a remarkably short time has announced that the work will begin at once. This will remove the last of the unsightly bridge on that street, the city having built a fill instead of one of them several months ago, with work on the second begun. The intervening bridge belonged to the railroad and the latter has consented to build a fill with a concrete in place of it.

An Alabama man, Ben Delamoe, convicted for a technical violation of the pension laws and sentenced to the Ohio penitentiary, is to offer the government a bond of $100,000 if permitted to attend the G. A. R. convention at Cleveland. He says he has never missed one yet. He is quite a remarkable character, having once slept in the chair of the speaker of the house of representatives in Alabama as a tramp, and filled it as speaker within a few years.

The Republicans of Maryland have begun their fight on Arthur P. Gorman, aspirant for the United States senate, and hope to make a successful fight. Gorman's rule is not acceptable to the best people of the Old Line State, and it is anticipated that he will fail to break into the senate. The Republicans in their convention Tuesday paid more attention to a platform than to the nomination of candidates for the few offices to be filled. Gorman Platt was named for state controller and Thomas Farran for clerk of the court of appeals.

The Democratic press of Kentucky has now abandoned the steel strike topic, forget[ting] about Ooba and the Philippines ignore trouble in China, and drop the Baylor-Sampson controversy, for they have an opportunity to bring a few more fits over the removal of Mrs.
Sanders as postmistress at New Castle, whom Senator Deboe opposed. They will doubtless predict the early downfall of the dynasty and the disintegration of the republic because Mrs.
Sanders was not reappointed, and tell a few more funny stories on Senator Deboe by way of evening things up.

Senator McLanin, of South Carolina, refuses to be opated by the Democratic executive committee and in a reply to their action condemning his course and demanding his resignation he says:

"I hold my commission from the Democratic people of South Carolina.
I recognize no authority but theirs, take no orders from any source but them and shall in due time appeal to them for judgment on my course as a senator, and my character as a man and a Democrat. Personally I am indifferent to your action, because nobody has made you my master or censor, and I regard what you have done as merely expressing the malice and the fears of one individual, Senator B. R. Tillman. But for this always evil and independent influence ordinarily respect for the proprieties would probably have prevented the four of you who are my declared competitors for the seat I now have the honor to occupy from attempting to use the power intrusted to you by your party to remove a rival from your path."

NEW CABINET.

Chairman Wellie Starts the Library Boom—Fine Cabinet.

The Books Will Have a Five Hundred Dollar Case Eventually.

Chairman Ben Wellie, of the district school committee, has for some time past had the matter of providing for the high school library a suitable cabinet, and at last has made a good start. At Tuesday's school board meeting he was allowed $100 to go towards the first section of it, and it will be built at once by Mr. Newman, the well known cabinet maker.
It is intended to have the looks of the high school kept in one of the finest cabinets in the state and its total cost when complete will be about $500.

It will be built, however, in sections, and the portion now authorized by the board is the first section.

The money was made at the commencement in June, and this winter a number of entertainments will be given to increase the fund. The high school library is something Paducah should be proud of, for it is one of the best in the state. A suitable place for it has always been lacking and Mr.
Wellie and the members of the board who have been in favor of the cabinet deserve credit for their work.

REWARDS OFFERED.

FOR THE ARREST OF TWO MEN CHARGED WITH SERIOUS CRIMES.

Frankfort, Ky., Aug. 8.—Governor Beckham has offered a reward of $200 for the apprehension of John E. Jones, of Lewis county, a fugitive from Justice. Jones is under indictment for killing his own father.

A reward of $250 was offered for the arrest of John Walker, of Boyle county, charged with criminal assault. Walker, who is a negro, is charged with assaulting Mrs. Kelson, a German woman, living in the county.

BACK ON BUSINESS.

ENGINEER W. W. LYON PAYS PA-DUCAH A SHORT VISIT.

Civil Engineer W. W. Lyon, formerly assistant city engineer of Paducah, was in the city last evening on business, returning home this morning.
Engineer Lyon is located at present at Morehead, Ky., as the chief construction engineer of the Morehead and New Liberty railroad, which is making an extension of thirty miles. About 300 men are working under Engineer Lyon, and at present a 1,400 foot tunnel is being excavated.

SAYS HE IS INSPIRED.

NEGRO SUDDENLY ACQUIRES
THE POWER TO READ
THE BIBLE.

Owensboro, Ky., Aug. 8.—Isaac Brooks, an old negro 62 years of age, who has never been able to read and write, has startled the community by reciting scripture at random. He can quote any verse in the Bible asked for and claims that he was inspired in his dream Saturday. Strange as it may seem, the fact of his wonderful gift was not discovered until Sunday afternoon.

PRIMARY CALLED.

AUGUST 21 IS FIXED AS THE DATE BY LOUISVILLE RE-PUBLICANS.

Louisville, Aug. 8.—The recent primary was last evening annulled by the city and county Republican committees, and a call has been issued for a convention to be held on August 21.
The Republicans are getting together and it is believed a ticket will be put out that all can support.

A SECRET MARRIAGE.

Princeton, Ky., August 7.—Miss Della Moore was secretly married to Ben Kaufman, of the firm of Kaufman and Goldsamer, on June 28.
The marriage was made known today.
The groom is in the west for his health.

$100 REWARD.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreadful disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby dissolving the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work.
The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer one hundred dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of buttresses. Address,

KENTUCKY CROPS.

THE WEEKLY REPORT IS MORE ENCOURAGING TO FARMERS.

Louisville, August 8.—The weekly crop report states that conditions are more favorable than last week, good rains having fallen in many places.

The report continues:
"Cooler weather and local showers have improved conditions over the greater part of the state. Some local floods in the south-central portions have had no rain and are suffering a most intense drought, and the whole state needs more rain."

The showers came too late to save early corn, which is practically ruined.
Tobacco and late corn are seriously injured, but with favorable conditions during the balance of the season will make at least partial crops.
"Wheat, oats, rye and hay were saved before being seriously injured by the drought. Quite a large acreage of stock pens were sown for hay and this crop appears to be standing the drought better than any other."

"Fruit is very badly injured—apples, pears and peaches being shriveled on the trees in many localities.
Gardens and pastures are dried up.
Irish potatoes were nearly cooked in the ground and are now rotting badly."

Farm work is fairly well up.
Plowing for winter wheat has begun."

GOES BACK.

MR. JACK MANN TO RETURN TO HIS FIRST LOVE, THE ROAD.

Mr. Jack Mann, the popular drummer, who for years was one of the best snuff sellers in the country, but for the past two years has been proprietor of the Palmer House cigar stand, has decided to return to the road, and on August 15, accepts a position with Dreyfus & Well, the whiskey dealers. Mr. Mann's territory will probably be Illinois and Missouri, in which event he will make his headquarters in Kansas City.

He is one of the most popular young men in Paducah, and his many friends hope his new work will not keep him from visiting the city very often.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.

JENNIE McNUTT TOOK MOR-PHINE WHILE DESPONDENT.

Jennie McNutt, a woman of the town weary of the life and troubles of life, attempted suicide last night by taking ten cents worth of morphine. She was found unconscious in her room of Second street near Jefferson, and Dr. Henry Duke was summoned. After two hours hard work the physician succeeded in relieving the woman, though she is still very ill and may not survive.
She is a member of a prominent family of Mayfield, Ky.—Louisville Commercial.

LOW WATER.

THEY BEGIN TO LAY UP ON AC-COUNT OF THE RIVER.

Paducah and Evansville packet briers went to the bank this morning for the season on account of low water, and the H. W. Buttrif left for Louisville.

Hopkinsville, Ky., August 8.—The Little River Baptist Association met at West Union church near Gracery, this morning and will be in session three days. There are forty churches represented with a membership of about four thousand. Rev. John T.
Cunningham preached the annual sermon.

EXCURSION TO CHICAGO.

The annual excursion on the I. O. will be given this year August 20th.
Fare for the round trip, $5.00. Tickets are good up to August 25th.

LOOKING FOR HORSE THIEF.

Sheriff Doubitt, of Mayfield, was in the city last evening looking for Hollie Williams and Anderson Kimball, two negroes charged with stealing a horse from John Dovesse last June. Kimball was arrested by officer Harran on suspicion of having stolen the horse some little time ago, but as no trace of it could be found, he was released, and it is now learned where the animal was disposed of.
The officer went to Bonds Station with a hope of apprehending the alleged thieves.

THROUGH COLORADO.

The Denver & Rio Grande Railroad, with its numerous branches penetrating the Rockies, has two distinct and separate lines across the mountains.
Tickets reading via the "Scenic Line" between Denver and Grand Junction, in connection with the Rio Grande Western Ry. between Grand Junction and Ogden, are available over the Denver & Rio Grande either via its main line through Leadville and Glenwood Springs or via the line over Marshall pass and through the Black Canon.
Tourists to and from Salt Lake City, Ogden or San Francisco will find it to their advantage to have their tickets read in both directions via "The Scenic Line of the World," thus being able to use one of the above routes going and the other returning. Write B. E.
Hooper, G. P. & T. A., Denver, Colo.,

Observations ...at Random

The following is from Kansas:
"There are women who are comely, there are women who are homely, but be careful how the latter thing you say. There are women who are wealthy, there are women who are poor, there are women who will always have their way. There are women who are truthful, there are women who are untruthful—was there ever any woman who was old? There are women who are sainted, there are women who are painted, there are women who are worth their weight in gold. There are women who are staunch, there are women who are fickle, there are women who are very fat and red. There are women who are married, there are women who are single, but they're dead."

The doctrine of reincarnation, along with Karma and other Oriental hypotheses relating to the spiritual life has attracted much attention in the Occident of late years and, as now appears, it has even become a subject of discussion among the Dutch Jews. The Bombay Guardian gives a dialogue on "transmigration" of souls, between two gentlemen of this nationality. As the doctrine is often found to be a difficult one for western comprehension, we give The (forward) report of the conversation, which has the merit of being at least a clear statement: Strauss: "O, say, Mishel Isaac, you now doctrine ladie la? Dey call it transmigration." Isaac: "O, transmigration, you know what dot is?" Strauss: "No, and I hear you much about it sometimes, now." Isaac: "Vell!
Vell! I soon tell you rot transmigration la. It is die vey. You are now Strauss. Some day you die, and den your soul get good into a toney. Den some morian! I get up and I velle out early down ve vey, and I meet dot toney, oy, and it, you, brays and brays, and says, 'Mishel Isaac! Und I say, 'Vy, who are you? I don't know you.' Und you say, 'Vy, Mr.
Isaac, you don't know me? Vy, I am Strauss! Und I say, 'Vot, you Strauss? No! No! Vy you are a toney.' Und you say, 'No, no, I am Strauss, but I have chait been transmigration.' Then I strokes your loog oer, and puts you big cheek, and I say: 'Vell, vell, now Strauss, is die you? Vy, how little you have changed!' Tots is die transmigration doctrine."

Disagreeable Passenger.—To communicate traveler sitting by open window: "Excuse me, sir, but that open window is very annoying."

O. T. pleasantly: "I'm sorry but I'm afraid you'll have to grin and bear it."

D. P.: "I wish you would close it, sir."

O. T.: "Would like to accommodate you, but I can't."

D. P.: "Do you refuse to close that window, sir?"

O. T.: "Certainly do."

D. P.: "If you don't close it I will."

O. T.: "I'll bet you won't."

D. P.: "If I go over there I will."

O. T.: "I'll give you odds you won't."

D. P.: "I'll ask you once more, sir, will you close that window?"

O. T.: "No sir; I will not."

D. P., getting on his feet: "Then I will sit."

O. T.: "I would like to see you do it."

D. P., placing his hands on the objectionable window: "I'll show you whether I will or not, sir."

O. T., as disagreeable passenger gets at window: "Why don't you close it?"

D. P., getting red in the face: "It appears—to me."

O. T.: "Of course it is. I tried to close it before you came in."

And then the disagreeable passenger felt foolish, and the other passengers checked audibly.—Tit-Bits.

Mr. Ellis Bour saw the first case of "stage fright" on the stage of The Kentucky. He was at work in the rafters at the top of the stage and several young ladies were below seated on a pile of boards watching the plastic relief men at work. One of the ropes used in hoisting boards to the rafters where Mr. Bour was at work slipped loose and knocked two large blocks of wood down to the floor, about 80 feet below. When the blocks struck, the ladies gave out wild screams and fled in all directions. This was the first real "stage fright" on the stage of The Kentucky.

"War" Borne in Culture.

The cause of the "war" disease of cotton, which has been more or less destructive during the past two or three seasons, is a fungus which attacks the plant from the soil. It first enters the small roots and subsequently grows into the tap or stem. The result is that the supply of food and moisture carried up from the roots is greatly decreased.

Army of Cumberland Men.

The men who composed the army of the Cumberland have had a remarkable record since the war. Three of the army's generals have become presidents—Grant, Garfield and Harrison. Every commander in chief of the United States army, with the exception of Gen. Miles, served in the army of the Cumberland. Seventeen members have been in the cabinet, thirty-eight have been senators and 300 have been in congress.

Indians living on the eastern end of the Koshena reservation, near Oconia, Wis., recently held their annual "dog feast." In old days dogs were fattened specially for these feasts, roasted and eaten with relish, but in these times of degenerate civilization the haves are content to eat turkey, chicken, goose and other delicacies, all of which were plentiful at the Koshena feast.

Cora Blizard filed a suit for divorce against her husband, George Blizard, this afternoon giving her grounds as abandonment and non-support. They had been married about eight years and separated about four years.

Married to Tap Roberts.

German capitalists have planned the construction of a railroad through the Semoyede peninsula with the object of bringing the wheat of western Siberia quickly and economically into the world market. The wheat will be shipped by the Oh and its navigable tributaries to Odorok; then by rail to the seacoast and thence by vessel to London or other ports.

Long Brains Hurt Health.

Miss Lottie Collins, the vivacious music-hall lady who was once drawing the salary of a cabinet minister for singing "Ta-ra-ra-bom-de-ay," is now fulfilling a half-year's engagement in Australia. Asked whether she intends of retiring the song that first made her reputation, she replied emphatically in the negative. "It br' my health," she said.

"Woe" Done in Cotton.

The cause of the "wool" disease of cotton, which has been more or less destructive during the past two or three seasons, is a fungus which attacks the plant from the soil. It first enters the small roots and subsequently grows into the tap or stem. The result is that the supply of food and moisture carried up from the roots is greatly decreased.

Army of Cumberland Men.

The men who composed the army of the Cumberland have had a remarkable record since the war. Three of the army's generals have become presidents—Grant, Garfield and Harrison. Every commander in chief of the United States army, with the exception of Gen. Miles, served in the army of the Cumberland. Seventeen members have been in the cabinet, thirty-eight have been senators and 300 have been in congress.

Affraid of Infernal Machines.

Every ship loading at New Orleans with mules or horses under British contracts for use in South Africa is being carefully watched to prevent the passing of board of infernal machines or other destructive instruments in behalf of the Boers' cause. The coal especially is subjected to careful scrutiny.

Dog Must Not Bored.

Indiana living on the eastern end of the Koshong reservation, near Ocoee, Wis., recently held their annual "dog feast." In old days dogs were fattened specially for these feasts, roasted and eaten with relish, but in these times of degenerate civilization the bores are content to eat turkey, chicken, goose and other delicacies, all of which were plentiful at the Koshong feast.
